

General:

When mounting a video source in a car (eg: DVD player, camera or game console) it can result in image distortion. This can be prevented by fitting an extra main power supply filter between the power supply and the video source, which neutralizes the impurities in the car power supply.

The following will be supplied:

- Main power supply filter
- Warranty
- Invoice